

U.S. Export Control Regulations Seminar

Amsterdam, the Netherlands
October 16-19, 2017

The American Embassy is pleased to once again support the Export Compliance Training Institute's annual seminar on October 16 – 19, 2017 at the Hilton Amsterdam Hotel on U.S. Export Control Regulations and the impact they have on your company. The seminar will include the latest information on the recent changes concerning United States Export Control Reform (ECR), as well as practical advice on how European companies can adapt and avoid costly violations. Many items have transferred from the USML (ITAR-controlled) to the CCL (EAR-controlled) and companies will need to update compliance procedures in order to stay in compliance with the U.S. rules. Expert speakers will tell you exactly what you need to know to build the optimal compliance program. Please note that as a contact of the U.S. Commercial Service in the Netherlands, you are eligible for a 20% discount on the regular tuition cost of these seminars. This discount cannot be combined with other offers or discounts.

U.S. export control regulations such as the Export Administration Regulations (EAR), the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), and OFAC Controls and Embargoes will be covered in detail on the following days:

October 16 – 17, 2017: U.S. ITAR Defense Trade Controls Seminar (ITAR regulations)
October 18 - 19, 2017: U.S. EAR & OFAC Controls & Embargoes

In order to receive the discount, please contact Jessica Lemon jessica@learnexportcompliance.com for registration instructions. Telephone contact is +1-540-433-3977. Registration is also available on the organizer webpage: <http://www.learnexportcompliance.com/amsterdam2017>.
